

Instructions for Resource Persons:

1. The Resource person is supposed to select one or more topics from the list enclosed.
2. A power point presentation is mandatory for each topic so selected.
3. Details of practical and theoretical activities should be given with mention of the latest trend in case laws & research.
4. A single topic signifies a minimum of 01 lecture of 90 minutes duration. The Resource person can suggest further lectures depending on the bulk of material to be imparted during the session.
5. At the end of the lecture, the participants undergoes a test. Its normal duration is 7 - 10 minutes. It works on our computer program called Activity Management System. The Resource person is to furnish a list of MCQs in respect of his/her topic. It should not be less than 25 questions per topic.
6. The Resource person should be cognizant of time management and punctuality.
7. He / She should avoid racial, linguistic, cultural, religious and gender related controversies.
8. It is our policy that the resource person ought to be higher in grade vis-a-vis the participants except in a case of a resource person whose expertise in a particular area is well established such as through a P.hD degree or Research etc.