Academy signs MoUs with Malakand, Hazara and Abdul Wali Khan Universities

23.05.2014

In a short span of two years of its existence, the KP Judicial Academy scored another great achievement by signing Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with three Universities: the Abdul Wali Khan University (Mardan), the University of Malakand (Chakdara) and the University of Hazara (Mansehra). Dr Khurshid Iqbal, Dean of Faculty signed the MoU along with Dr Zahoor-ul-Haq, Registrar, the Abdul Wali Khan University, Mr. Sher Bhadur Khan, Registrar, University of Malakand and Mr. Bakhtyar Muhmand, Registrar, Hazara University. Amidst applause of about two dozen people--mostly staff members of all the institutions, Dr Iqbal exchanged the documents with the Registrars, having a ceremonious handshake with each one of them, with the Director General of the Academy and Vice-Chancellors of the Universities standing in the background.

The purpose of this memorandum is to develop Academic research and other educational co-operation and mutual understanding between the Academy and the Universities. According to the MOU, both the Universities agree to develop collaborative activities in areas of mutual interest, on the basis of equality and reciprocity. The MoU cover visits of Academic and Administrative staff/officers and creation of internship opportunities for students at the academy.

Speaking on the occasion, the Heads of all the institutions displayed a high spirit, underlining the need and importance of collaboration amongst their respective institutions and the contribution of such efforts to meet the challenges faced by legal and judicial education in the KP.
