1. INTRODUCTION

Pre-service training of probationer judicial officers is a legal requirement under Rule 9 (4) of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa (KP) Judicial Service Rules, 2001. For the tier of civil judges-cum-judicial magistrates, the prescribed duration of the training is 4-8 weeks. As per past practice the probationer officers would undergo one-month pre-service training after their court attachment. The Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Judicial Academy Act, 2012 (KPJA Act), mandates the Academy to impart training to the Judicial Officers and other stakeholders of the justice system for developing their capacity, professional competence and inculcating in them ethical standards for efficient dispensation of justice.

As per the mandate of the Academy, five (05) week Pre-Service Training (PST) of Batch-II of newly inducted civil judges-cum-judicial magistrates was conducted by Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Judicial Academy (KPJA) with support of UNDP, Pakistan from 9th May to 11th June 2022.

BACKGROUND

The PST as per statutory requirements was designed to enhance the professional knowledge and skills of the newly appointed judges. Seventy-two (72) judicial officers have been recently inducted into service after qualifying competitive examination (PCS Judicial) held by Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Public Service Commission. The 5th "Pre-service Training of second batch of newly inducted Civil Judges-cum-Judicial Magistrates, 2022" was undertaken by the Academy to inculcate in them the requisite knowledge, skills and attitude (KSA) by focusing on imparting practical knowledge, and improving the ethical and moral standards required of a judicial officer in performance of official business.

OBJECTIVES

The prime objective of the training program is the capacity building of the trainees, development of their professional skills, and transformation of attitude. The training objectives are to:

- Improve the knowledge of jurisprudence, universal principles of natural justice (principles ensuring fair trial), moral virtues and professional ethics,
- impart new skills for efficient alignment of legal concepts with their professional duties while maintaining high moral standards and the concept of earning Rizq-e-Halal,
- impart efficient, practical, and effective management and communication skills, and
- inculcate judicial decision making and opinion (judgment) writing skills;

OUTCOMES

Upon completing of this activity, the Academy hopes to achieve the desired objectives successfully.

METHODOLOGY

Training methodology included both curricular and co-curricular activities. Curricular activities mainly focused on lectures, presentations, and practical/mock exercises on various topics. For refining their personality and soft skills, informal interactive sessions were held. The Registrar, Peshawar High Court interacted with the participants during inaugural session. For their personal well being and to distance them from formal academic sessions, Discover Peshawar comprising of visits to Peshawar Museum and historical sites Masjid Mohabat Khan, Sethi House and Gorkhatri was also part of the schedule of activities. They were also encouraged to prepare separate visit reports in groups.

To further broaden horizons of the participants and to familiarize them with the formal setting of district and higher judiciary and other justice sector and academic institutions, visits and study tours of District Courts Peshawar, Model Police Stations, Forensic Science Laboratory, Federal Judicial Academy, Shariah Academy, International Islamic International University, Federal Shariat Court, Peshawar High Court, and the Supreme Court of Pakistan was also made part of their pre-service training schedule.

The above graph depicts the level of proficiency of the trainees, which was raised from initial 38 to 90 percent at the end of the training program.

CONCLUSION

Judicial training is an essential component for an efficient, cost effective and vibrant system of administration of justice. The vision and objectives set out in the Concept Note were translated into action by the Academy by designing and rolling out the comprehensive training to the second batch of newly inducted Civil Judges-cum-Judicial Magistrates. The resource persons, delivered highly informative and interactive lectures, performed effective demonstrations and conducted outcome-based practical exercises. The trainees also took keen interest in all activities. All activities, curricular and extramural, were properly carried out and based on the trainees' feedback, the training completed successfully.
